

FRANKLIN
STREET
WORKS

Strange Invitation

April 6 - June 16

Strange Invitation

A collaborative, socially engaged exhibition at Franklin Street Works explores themes surrounding the natural, urban, and organizational environments in our daily lives. Participants include Pradeep Dalal, Flint Public Art Project, Flower Tour, Amy Lipton, Reanimation Library and Andrea Reynosa.

Upcoming Programming:

Honey Locust Tree Relocation
(a participatory project with David Horvitz) Saturday, May 4, 10:30 - 3:00 pm, FSW meet up at 10:30 am or at the Stamford Train station for the 11:03 train, email your RSVP to sandrine@franklinstreetworks.org

Art in the New City: Stephen Zacks
Thursday, May 23, Stamford Innovation Center, 6:00 - 7:30 pm

An Incomplete Portrait of the Reanimation Library Thursday, May 30, 6:30 - 8:00 pm

“Excess” performance by Brooke Singer and Ricardo Mirando

Saturday, June 15, 3:00 - 6:00 pm in Stamford downtown, picnic at FSW 6:00 - 8:00 pm

Emily Larned Public Book Binding Workshop Thursday June 13, 5:30 - 7:30 pm

Franklin Street Heritage Garden and Farmstand, every Saturday, 12:00 - 3:00 pm

Become a member today to support and enjoy FSW public programs!

Unless otherwise indicated, events are at Franklin Street Works, 41 Franklin St., Stamford, CT. For updates on events, visit the programs page at www.franklinstreetworks.org/programs/.